

ADAPTING YOUR HOME

As you experience limitations in your abilities, your SRES® can guide you in a redesign of your home. You may need a Certified Aging-in-Place Specialist (CAPS) who can evaluate your residence and suggest accessibility and technology improvements all custom designed for you with direction from your SRES®. The power of plus results in peace of mind for you and for those who care about you.

SENIOR HOUSING AND ASSISTED LIVING

Life can present obstacles to independent living. The power of plus gives you the assurance that your SRES® has the experience to counsel you on the wide range of alternatives in senior living. You can rely on your SRES® to help you make informed choices that lead to a residence that provides the right care in a place that you can call home.
